

Adrienne L. Parker

Adrienne L. Parker serves on the Board of Directors of the I AM Arts Foundation as the Secretary. Adrienne is a native Atlantan reared in Southwest Atlanta. She is currently a Business Analyst for a Metro Atlanta School System with over 25 years of experience and has a Dual Master of Business Administration as well as a Certification as a Payroll Professional with the American Payroll Association. She believes in giving back to her community and has a passion for working with youth as she is an avid volunteer which started when Adrienne was a reading volunteer in the seventh grade; she stills enjoys reading to elementary school students, today. For more than 25 years, she has been a community volunteer in various capacities to include but not limited to a Girl Scout Troop Leader with Girl Scouts of Greater Atlanta to the beloved Randolph Girl Scout Troop, Girl Scout Gold Award Couch, Sunday School Teacher, Co-Chairperson of the Children's Chapel Ministry at her church, Afterschool Tutor, School Reading Volunteer, Co-Chairperson and President of her church choir where she leads fundraising projects and community outreach projects. Adrienne also has served as the Travel Coordinator for the I AM Arts Partnership as well as the Senior Dance Company Parent Liaison.