

Dr. Tiffany S. Mingo, Ed.D., Founder, Executive Director, Arts leader, Curriculum Specialist and Dance educator with extensive experience within the public and private sectors. She has a proven track record of leveraging community business partnerships for educational support, managing community outreach and providing pedagogical practices to teachers as a curriculum arts specialist and presenter throughout the country. She is the Dance Director at Carver Steam Academy, former Magnet Director of the Visual & Performing Arts Magnet Program at Tri-Cities High School and for Dance Director at Maynard Jackson High School.

Dr. Mingo's awards and accomplishments include being recognized in the New York Times for her role of mentoring and teaching current NFL player Lorenzo Mauldin, "Teacher of the Year" for Maynard Holbrook Jackson High School 2013-2014. She was the 2017 recipient of the I AM Woman Entrepreneurship Awards, Fine Arts Educator of the Year 2009-2010 for the Atlanta Public School District and received the "2012 Arts Leader in Education" award at the districts Fine Arts Conference Teacher of Year for Maynard Jackson High School, Fine Arts Educator of the Year 2009-2010 for Atlanta Public School Schools and received the "2012 Arts Leader in Education" award at the districts Fine Arts Conference.

Her educational training includes: Educational Doctorate where she investigated the academic benefits of arts education and the phenomenon of adding the ARTS to the STEAM curriculum, Educational Specialist in Teaching & Learning from Argosy University, M.Ed. in Curriculum & Instruction with a specialization in arts integration from Lesley University, and a B.A. in dance from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Dr. Mingo has actively trained at the Jamaican School of Dance in Kingston, Jamaica; The Newtown School of the Arts in Sydney, Australia; and with a host of prominent artists of Modern, Jazz, and West African dance techniques. Her teaching experience includes: The Atlanta Ballet Centre for Dance Education, Ballethnic Dance Academy, Norma's Academy of Dance, McClendon's School of Dance, Price Performing Arts Center, A. D. West Dance Studio, The Southwest Arts Center and a host of other facilities of dance in the Atlanta area. Dr. Mingo's performance with several professional companies include: Young Audiences of Western New York, The City Ballet Theater of Milwaukee, MI, Buffalo Contemporary Dance Company, The Virtue Dance Collective, The Zodiac Dance Company, The African Cultural Center's Dance & Drum Performing Troupe, The Buffalo City Ballet Company, Ballethnic Dance Company, The Atlanta Dance Connection, and Total Dance.

Dr. Mingo's philosophy on arts and education is to provide equitable opportunities that exceeds nothing but excellence. As a passionate community change agent her mission is to share the arts as a holistic entity. We are here to leave a legacy where the arts should be respected beyond the thrills of spectacle and entertainment but for power to both heal and empower.